

Chambered body 7-string lap steel

Serial # 005

#005 was the last of four lap-steel kids. She didn't have to work too hard to look good, with her bright red Padauk trim, chambered ash body, hollow neck and swirling Bubinga jacket. With the extra pocket money her inappropriately doting parents slipped her as a kid, she bought a big fat bass machine head to give her the kind of bottom end even Madonna envies. On first meeting, she's likely to croon through the Duncan Jazz Model humbucker from her hollow neck. If you give her a hard time about being the youngest kid, she might haul out the SH-59 Humbucker tucked into her Gotoh bridge. There are worse ways to shorten one's life expectancy.
